CALL FOR APPLICATIONS FOR COMPETITIVE SELECTION-ADMISSION TO PHD PROGRAMMES WITH ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICES AT THE UNIVERSITÀ DEGLI STUDI DEL SANNIO [UNIVERSITY OF SANNIO], XXXIV CYCLE.

Issued by Rector's Decree number 755, dated September 17, 2018.

Deadline for submission of applications for the selection-admissions process:

October 16, 2018

Article 1 Activation

1. In accordance with the provisions laid down in the Rector's Decree number 755, dated September 17, 2018, the XXXIV cycle of PhD Programmes in: “Person, Market, Institutions”, “Science and Technology for Environment and Health”, and “Information Technologies for Engineering”, is hereby instituted, with administrative offices at the Università degli Studi del Sannio [University of Sannio] (hereinafter “University of Sannio” or “the University”).
Notice is hereby also provided, of the open competitive selection-admissions process for the aforementioned PhD Programmes and in respect of coverage relating to the respective places available, as detailed in the relevant PhD Programme Information Sheets (hereinafter “PhD Info Sheets”) that are attached to this Call thereby forming an integral part thereof (Annex A).
2. The number of places available for each PhD programme, as set out in this Call, may be subject to an increase if, prior to the selection process, provisions are made for additional new seats through funding provided by appropriate organisations, institutions, companies and other entities, either public or private, or conversely to a decrease, when funding initially committed is eventually not made available by the originally intended funding providers.
3. The places with additional grants financed under the European Social Fund Programs (FSE) for “doctoral training at industrial interest” (PON RI FESR 2014-2020 and POR Campania FSE 2014/2020 - Specific Objective 14 - Action 10.4. 5) will be activated only after approval of the funding by the MIUR and the Campania Region. For this type of place it is possible to foresee the observance of specific obligations related to study and research activities abroad and in the company and the possession of specific birth and / or residence requirements, in compliance with the rules prescribed by the relative Programs.
The places with additional grants financed under the “AFarCloud” project will only be activated following the approval of the funding by the MIUR.
4. All candidates compete for ordinary posts. Separate rankings will be drawn up for additional places and reserved places. Each candidate can compete for no more than two types of additional and / or reserved placed in addition to the ordinary ones. If he is the winner in more than one ranking he will have to opt for only one type of place.

Article 2

Admission Requirements

1. Applications for the Competitive Selection-Admissions Process (hereinafter "Admission Application") for the PhD Programmes indicated in Article 1 of this Call are invited from eligible applicants holding one of the following qualifications:
 - a) an Italian second level graduate degree ("laurea specialistica" or "laurea magistrale");
 - b) a graduate degree obtained according to the university/educational system prior to the Ministerial Decree number 509, dated 3 November 1999;
 - c) a 'foreign' graduate degree achieved outside Italy, and declared equivalent to one of the qualifications mentioned in the preceding points a) and b) or in any case deemed to be valid according to the requirements and the procedures set forth in paragraphs 2 and 3 of this article;
2. Candidates can apply for additional places financed by Campania POR FSE 2014/2020 - Specific Objective 14 - Action 10.4.5, if they are unemployed and they were born and / or are resident in Campania and they hold the qualification referred to in paragraph 1 of this article.
3. The suitability and validity of a foreign academic qualification that has not been declared equivalent to one of the qualifications referred to in paragraph 1, points a) and b) of this Article shall be evaluated by the Selection-Admissions Committee referred to in Article 6 of this Call, in accordance with the provisions of Article 8, paragraph 1 of the Ministerial Decree number 45, dated 8 February 2013.
4. Applicants are required to submit together with their Admission Application, under penalty of exclusion, the documents necessary to enable the relevant Selection-Admissions Committee to ascertain the validity of the foreign degree and, in particular, those documents that substantiate the applicant's entire educational and academic career pathway.

The aforementioned candidates are required, in particular, to attach the following to their Admission Application in response to this Call:

 - a) first and second level degree (or equivalent) certificates, issued by an officially recognised academic institution, with related final marksheet/transcript;
 - b) pass certificate as applicable for exams taken during the I and II level academic career, with related final marksheet/transcript;
 - c) any other document useful to obtaining the declaration of validity of the foreign degrees (Diploma Supplement, dichiarazione di valore in loco [Declaration of equivalence of qualification] etc, issued respectively by the original degree-granting University and the respective Italian diplomatic-consular authorities abroad);
 - d) copy of a valid identity document.

Where the abovementioned documents are in a language other than Italian or English, they must be accompanied by the Italian/English translation, obtained by and under the sole responsibility of the candidate.

5. Graduate level students in their final programme year may also submit an Admission Application, on the proviso that they achieve their stated academic degree by the deadline of 31 October, 2017. In this case, the said applicants' participation in the selection-admissions process shall remain "conditional" and in the event of their application being successful, they will be required to submit the relevant degree certificate or self-certification (pursuant to provisions in the Presidential Decree number 445, dated 28 December 2000, applicable only for European Union citizens) by the deadline set at the time of publication on the University Web site, of the final merit rankings list (hereinafter "merit list"), to the Organisational Unit "Esami di Stato, Dottorati e Master [State Examinations, PhD and Masters]", whose office is located in the building complex known as "Ex Convento di S. Agostino [Former St. Augustine Convent]", at Via Giovanni De Nicastro, No 13, Benevento, Italy. Failure to do so will result in forfeiture of admission to the PhD Programme.

1. Admission Applications addressed to the Rector of the University of Sannio, Piazza Guerrazzi, number 1, 82100 Benevento, must be submitted, under penalty of exclusion, by the deadline of 12.00 am, 16 October 2018, using one of the following methods:
 - Registered mail with acknowledgment of receipt;
 - Express courier;
 - Hand delivery to the Office “Segreteria e Protocollo [Secretariat and Protocol Office]” located in the building complex known as “Palazzo San Domenico”, which houses the offices of the Rector, the General Management and some Departments, Organisational Units and Offices of the Central Administration of the University of Sannio, located at: Piazza Guerrazzi, number 1, Benevento, from Monday to Friday (10.00 am - 12.00 pm), on Mondays and Wednesdays (3.30 pm - 4.30 pm), by the deadline set for that purpose.
2. Applicants not residing in Italy may send the Admission Application by e-mail to the following address: dottorati@unisannio.it (in this case, all the documents, including the duly completed application form printed and signed by the candidate and the thesis, must be scanned and sent in PDF or JPG format).
3. For the purposes of verifying adherence to the deadline set for the submission of Admission Applications, regardless of the method chosen by the applicant for the delivery thereof, only the appropriate official stamp of the Office “Segreteria e Protocollo” of the University of Sannio shall serve as proof of date of arrival. The postmark stamp of the accepting Post Office shall not be considered in this regard.
4. Admission Applications delivered after 12:00 pm on 16 October 2018, or by methods other than those set out in this Calls shall be considered inadmissible and, consequently, shall be excluded from the selection process.

Article 5

Selection-Admission Tests

1. The selection-admission tests will take place no later than 30 October 2018, and will be aimed at assessing the applicants’ knowledge, academic preparation, ability and aptitude for research; and adequate knowledge of and proficiency in at least one foreign language.
2. The modalities for conducting the selection-admission tests, for each of the PhD Programmes, are explicitly and comprehensively set out in and administered as per the PhD Info Sheets that are attached to this Call thereby forming an integral part thereof (Annex B).
3. Theoral test interview may be conducted via “teleconference” for foreign applicants or for Italian applicants where circumstances so warrant, which should be justified on the basis of appropriate documentation; in this case applicants must send their request in support of the remote interview, to the email address: dottorati@unisannio.it as early as possible and no later than 24 hours prior to the date set for the interview.
4. Dates, times and venues for the above tests will be announced by notice published on the University website at: <http://www.unisannio.it/it/studente/laureato/dottorato-di-ricerca>, by 9 October 2018.
5. Applicants must present a currently valid identity document in order to take the tests.
6. Pursuant to Law number 104, dated 5 February 1992, and successive amendments and additions thereto, prior to the deadline of this Call expiring, applicants with physical or learning disabilities (Specific Learning Disabilities - SLD) may, in relation to their specific condition, request the use of necessary aids and additional time as needed for completion of the selection-admissions tests. The requests shall be evaluated by the Selection-Admissions Committees. Appropriate medical certification issued by the competent Health Authorities must be submitted for physical disabilities. Applicants with ‘Specific Learning Disabilities’ refers to persons diagnosed with: dyslexia, dysgraphia, dyscalculia, dysorthographia. For such SLDs, applicants must submit appropriate clinical evaluation certification issued by the Servizio Sanitario Nazionale [Italian National Health Service] or by an independent practitioner, dated not more than three years prior to the deadline of this call. Applicants affected by SLDs, certified pursuant to Law number 170, dated 8 October 2010, shall be granted additional time of 30% with respect to the defined time for completion of the selection-admission tests. The relevant certifications must be sent to the email address dottorati@unisannio.it, strictly by the deadline of this call. Where the relevant documentation is received after this deadline, it may not be possible to ensure the aids necessary for the completion of the tests are available in a timely manner.

Article 6

Selection-Admissions Committees, Candidate Evaluation, and Merit Rankings Lists

1. The Rector, by Decree shall appoint for each PhD Programme, upon recommendation of the competent Academic Board, a Selection-Admissions Committee composed of three members chosen from among tenured professors and assistant professors (postdoctoral researchers) and two alternate members.
2. The aforementioned Committees shall be announced by a notice published on the University website at: <http://www.unisannio.it/it/studente/laureato/dottorato-di-ricerca>, by 9 October 2018.
3. For specific/priority topic areas targeted in the selection process the Selection-Admissions Committee may request the collaboration of one or more experts, selected from among tenured professors or assistant professors in the scientific/academic disciplinary fields pertaining to the PhD Programme who possess specific knowledge and expertise in the aforementioned topic areas.
4. The experts referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article shall be appointed by the Rector upon recommendation of the Selection-Admissions Committee and shall assume the role of "associate members" (aggregati) within the Committee.
5. The "associate members" may express their assessment and opinion, with reference to the evaluation of both the qualifications and the selection-admission tests, exclusively in relation to the specific topic areas for which the Selection-Admissions Committee has requested their collaboration.
6. The functions of Chair of the Selection-Admissions Committees shall be performed by the respective PhD Programme Coordinator, if the latter is an appointed member of the Committee, or otherwise by the most senior tenured professor.
7. The evaluation of both the academic qualifications and test results shall be carried out by the Selection-Admissions Committees in accordance with the criteria and parameters defined in the PhD Info Sheets that are attached to this Call thereby forming an integral part thereof (Annex B).
8. Upon conclusion of the selection process the Selection-Admissions Committee shall draw up the final merit rankings lists.
9. If the places available for each PhD Programme have been distributed among multiple "curricula" and "research topics" the Committee shall draw up separate merit lists for each curriculum or research topics.
10. Available but unassigned places earmarked for one curriculum or research topics may be assigned to candidates assessed to be suitable under another curriculum or research topics until the merit list has been depleted.
11. Each merit list shall be compiled by the Selection-Admissions Committee by summing the marks obtained by each candidate based on the evaluation of qualifications and admission test results.
12. In the event of identical scores:
 - solely for the purpose of assigning the available scholarships, preference among applicants with identical scores shall be determined on the basis of their economic situation, in accordance with the provisions of the Decree of the President of the Council of Ministers, dated 9 April 2001;
 - solely for the purpose of assigning places without scholarship, preference will be given to the youngest candidate in accordance with the provisions of Article 3, paragraph 7 of Law number 127, dated 15 May 1997, as amended by Article 2 of Law number 191, dated 16 June 1998.
13. For PhD Programmes offering reserved places or additional places separate merit lists shall be drawn up. In case of a useful placement in several rankings, the candidate will have to exercise an option for only one position. Successful applicants for places reserved for holders of scholarships granted by foreign institutions must, under penalty of exclusion, submit the documentation concerning the scholarship they hold within a maximum of thirty days from the date of publication of the final merit list.

14. (Only for applicants for PHD Programme in “Information Technologies for Engineering”) In the event of placement in merit lists for multiple curricula, the applicant must eventually choose only one Curriculum.
15. The final merit lists shall be approved by Rector's Decree published on the University website: <http://www.unisannio.it/it/studente/laureato/dottorato-di-ricerca>. This publication shall be equivalent to an official communication. As such, no further notification will be sent to applicants regarding the publication of merit lists and deadline for enrollment.

Article 7 Admission to the PhD Programmes

1. Applicants shall be admitted to the PhD programmes in the ranking order established in the respective final merit lists, until all available places for each PhD programme have been filled.
2. Admission/enrollment and attendance in a (University of Sannio) PhD Programme with/without scholarship is not compatible with simultaneous enrollment in: PhD Programmes at other Italian or foreign higher education institutions, or Specialisation Schools, other post-graduate/advanced training/specialisation and Master's courses, any other credit-providing educational or internship programmes, excepting the cases provided for by current regulations in respect of Graduate Schools of Medical Sciences. Those enrolled in Internship Training Programmes (Corsi di Tirocinio Formativo Attivo) who, having qualified for participation therein, wish to enroll in a PhD Programme, are required to request the temporary suspension of their internship.

Article 8 Enrollment in PhD Programmes

1. Successful applicants placed on the final merit lists relating to ordinary and reserved places must, under penalty of forfeiture, present or send the PhD Programme Enrollment Application to the Organisational Unit “Esami di Stato, Dottorati e Master [State Examinations, PhD and Masters]”, whose office is located in the building complex known as “Ex Convento di S. Agostino [Former St. Augustine Convent]”, at Via Giovanni De Nicastro, No 13, Benevento, Italy, by the deadline established with the publication of the abovementioned merit list on the University website.
2. The enrolment forms will be made available on the University website at: <http://www.unisannio.it/it/studente/laureato/dottorato-di-ricerca> and may be submitted, duly completed and signed, and accompanied by all the required documentation, directly to the Organisational Unit “Esami di Stato, Dottorati e Master”, whose office is located in the building complex known as “Ex Convento di S. Agostino”, at Via Giovanni De Nicastro, No 13, Benevento, Italy; Monday to Friday (10.00 am - 12.00 pm), and Thursday (3.00 pm - 4.00 pm).
3. Successful candidates who fail to complete their enrollment within the timeframe specified in the notice, shall be deemed to have tacitly withdrawn (given up their place). In the event of explicit or tacit withdrawal by successful applicants prior to the start of the programme, available places will be assigned to eligible replacement candidates in accordance with the merit list.

Article 9 Scholarships

1. Scholarships are awarded on the basis of the respective merit list ranking applicants who participated in the competitive selection process for admission to the PhD Programme, as drawn up by the Selection-Admissions Committee.
2. The scholarships cover a three year term and shall be confirmed (renewed) annually, provided that the PhD student has successfully completed the programme of activities planned for the preceding year, as verified by the Academic Board, it remaining a requirement that the scholarship funds be disbursed only upon the aforementioned verification resulting in a positive outcome.
3. Awarding of scholarships is conditional upon the candidate's total gross personal income in the reporting year, not exceeding the total scholarship amount of € 15.343,28, gross of all expenses to be borne by the eventual scholarship recipient.

4. To get the additional scholarships funded by POR Campania FSE 2014/2020 - Specific Objective 14 - Action 10.4.5 the candidate must be not employed and it is necessary that he was born in Campania or he is resident in Campania.
5. The amount of the scholarship to be paid in deferred monthly installments, shall be determined, in a sum not less than the amount fixed by the Ministerial Decree of 25 January 2018, n. 40.
6. Applicants successfully placed in the merit list must declare at the time of enrollment that their income situation satisfies the requirements set down in paragraph 3.
7. In the event applicants fail to satisfy the requirements with respect to the declaration referred to in paragraph 6 or to their personal income situation, or where they renounce the scholarship, the latter will be assigned to the next-highest ranked candidate in the relevant merit list. In any case, all holders of scholarships are required, on their own responsibility, to annually declare their actual received income, and where such income level exceeds the limit established in this Article, to duly notify the University Administration thereof.
8. In the event the scholarship holder's income exceeds the established limit, the scholarship will be revoked, for the entire year, by the Rector issuing a Rectoral Decree.
9. For ordinary places with scholarship, if the PhD student become ineligible for the scholarship renewal due to one of the circumstances outlined in the preceding paragraphs, or have to renounce the same, the unused amount will revert back to the PhD Programme and shall remain available for the same objectives and purposes.
10. For places with additional scholarship funded by European Social Fund (FSE) (PON RI FESR 2014-2020 and POR Campania FSE 2014/2020 - Specific Objective 14 - Action 10.4.5) if the student does not obtain the qualification or is not positively evaluated for admission to the next year of the course, or renounces the scholarship, he must return the sums paid in relation to the annuity assessed negatively or to the current year in progress;
11. The PhD scholarships may not be combined with any other scholarships or grants, except for those explicitly granted by national or international institutions in order to support and enable education and training/internship or research activities undertaken abroad or otherwise at an off-site/out-of-town location.
12. The scholarship amount shall be increased by a maximum of 50% for research periods of no longer than eighteen months, to carry out research activities abroad at foreign institutions, where the PhD student is duly so authorised by the Academic Board.
13. From the second year onwards, all PhD students enrolled in one of the PhD Programmes shall, in addition to any scholarship awarded and within existing financial resources in the overall budget, have available an individual "budget" for research activities in Italy and abroad, that is appropriate to the type of programme and in any event in an amount not less than ten percent of the total annual scholarship amount itself.
14. Candidates enrolled in the PhD Programme without scholarship don't pay fees, taxes and contributions related to Programme admission pursuant to article 1, paragraph no. 262 of the Law of 11 December 2016 "Legge di Stabilità".
15. All candidates admitted to the PhD program with and without scholarships are required to pay the regional tax for the right to study. The payment of the regional tax, amounting to € 140.00, must be made to the current account in the name of the "Tesoreria ADISURC Regione Campania".

Article 10

Rights and Duties of PhD Students and Award of the Degree

1. For information pertaining to the rights and duties of PhD students as well as the policies-procedures regarding the award of the PhD degree those interested may refer to the relevant provisions of the University Regulations for the Establishment and Organisation of PhD Programmes, available on the University Web site at:
